

	PRODUCT SHEET	Identification : Trainevo-Ficheprod-01
		Revision Date: 11/2021
		Version number: 01

Training Title: Strategy and Planning for Sustainable Development

This training allows to set up a sustainable development strategy that makes possible to integrate the ecological, economic and social constraints, as well as the expectations and concerns of all stakeholders in order to anticipate them and improve its responsiveness, its performance, its image, and the mobilization of its staff around these issues.

Reference:	Category:	Duration:
Trainevo-022022-RSE-01	RSE	1 day
Language(s):	Training organization:	Nb of participants (min):
French		6

Objective(s)

Identify the challenges of sustainable development for your organization.
 Assess the compliance of its approach with international standards.
 Define a sustainability strategy integrated into your operating model.
 Identify performance monitoring indicators to be measured and valued.
 Develop a short- and medium-term progress plan.

Program

- 1- Issues related to sustainable development
- 2- The regulatory & normative framework
- 3- The principles of social responsibility
- 4- Identify your social responsibility and dialogue with stakeholders
- 5- Guidelines on central issues of social responsibility
- 6- Planning for the integration of social responsibility throughout the organization
- 7- Evaluate the performance in terms of social responsibility of your organization
- 8- Continuous improvement

Method

The interactive presentation, including a methodology and implementation tools, allows a good acquisition of skills.

Target audience

Managers, HR, Project Manager or CSR/ Quality/QSE/HSE/SST Manager.

Evaluation

Certificate of training